

Steve Nordwell | Project Superintendent

Steve Nordwell joined Brockamp & Jaeger in 2006 with over 35 years of experience in the construction industry. He has worked on a wide range of projects including public projects for city and county governments, healthcare facilities, aquatic centers and telecommunications projects. He has worked on many projects which require the facility to remain operational during the construction process; particularly in telecommunication and medical settings.

2006 - present

Project Superintendent: Brockamp & Jaeger, Inc.
Supervises all aspects of commercial construction projects.
As superintendent, his responsibilities include:

- Managing day to day activities on the site
- Leading weekly subcontractor meetings
- Responsible for site safety and safety plan implementation
- Obtaining daily sub-contractor reports
- Keeping daily electronic project log on site
- Checking in and inspecting deliveries for compliance with specs
- Coordination of job site activities
- Maintaining project schedule
- Coordination with owner's staff
- Personnel supervision

1985 – 2006

Project Superintendent: Colamette Construction
While with Colamette, Steve's projects included:

- Albany Aquatic Center
- Port Haven Health Center
- Portland Adventist Medical Center
- Tillamook County Courthouse

1978 – 1985

Owner: Lorton Brothers & Snitley Construction

1968 – 1978

Apprentice/Journeyman Carpenter: Kewitt Construction

Projects

Steve's projects for Brockamp & Jaeger, Inc. include:

- Yamhill County Jail Addition and Remodel, McMinnville, Oregon
$1.6 million CM/GC project for jail remodel and addition
- Portland Bulk Storage Terminal #5, Port of Portland, Oregon
$3.5 million, 96,000 square foot addition to potash storage building and construction of attendant roadway access

References

Captain Ron Huber, Yamhill County Sheriff: (503) 434-7540
Rachael Brake, WorleyParsons Westmar: (360) 256-7670
Randy Saunders, RSS Architecture: (503) 982-1211